Hi

I'm called Rafael Huber and I'm Swiss. I live in St. Gallen, that's a town in the east of Switzerland and I like living there, because in summer the weather is warm and in winter it snows. I live there with my two brothers and my parents. My age is sixteen and I'm studying Spanish at the gymnasium KSBG.

I have short, brown hair and blue eyes. I also wear glasses, but it's not a problem for me.

My friends say that I'm friendly and funny. Sometimes, I'm a little bit quiet, but I am usually really talkative.

I play the violin in my free time and I like meeting friends. But I have not a lot of free time because of the school and I have to get up very early.

I hope I see you soon
Rafael

Dear _____,

My name is Dominique; I am 16 years old. I am Swiss, but I lived and went to school in Minnesota for 13 years. Two years ago our family moved to Switzerland, and I had two years to catch up on French and German. I have a little sister, Nathali, who is 12 years old. My parents are separated; my dad is currently living in Minnesota (again). I go to school at the Kantonsschule am Burggraben.

I used to have completely straight hair, but four years ago my hair started to curl, and now I have curly, light brown hair. My eyes are blue, and I am of average height. I have glasses but wear contacts a lot.

I am a pretty positive-thinking person and try to find good things in every situation. I also believe that everything happens for a reason. Sometimes I can be shy, but most of the time I'm an open and extrovert person. I'm very organized and tend to be a perfectionist in most things. Once I set a goal, I do everything possible to achieve it. Past experiences have also taught me that I can do almost anything I set my mind to.

I love doing sports and for a long time swimming was my main passion. But due to a lot of back problems, not liking the way Swiss coaches train their swimmers, and not having as much time anymore for weekly competitions and daily practices, I decided to put swimming on the back burner and pursue something else. I now would like to start with yoga and CrossFit: I need to be able to challenge myself and push my body toward the limits. Other than sports I also like to be creative and do different art and craft projects or use programs like iMovie, Photoshop, and GarageBand for various other projects. If I have some free time at night before I go to bed I like keep up with my English by reading one of the million books my mom bought at garage sales in Minnesota.

Hi Raulen

I have short hair and brown eyes. I'm 1:71 meter tall.

I think I'm a positive person but not in the morning. I hate it to wake up early.

In my free time I play handball. I go to training four times a week. And ~~once~~ one time I go to work out. I love to make something with my friends.
