

Getting help in class

1. Fill in the gaps with a suitable word

- |  |            |
|--|------------|
| 1. I'm sorry, I didn't .....it.                                | possible   |
| 2. Could you ....., please?                                    | difference |
| 3. What's the .....of skill?                                   | explain    |
| 4. Can/could you .....this again?                              | understand |
| 5. Is it ..... to say: May I have a look at it?         | hear       |
| 6. What's the .....between seat and sit ?        | how        |
| 7. ....do you pronounce the word psyche ?               | mean       |
| 8. What does foggy .....?                               | meaning    |
| 9. ....I also say: I'd like to have look at it?         | say        |
| 10. How do you ..... the word berühmt famous or famos?  | what       |
| 11. I don't/didn't .....what you said.                         | late       |
| 12. How do you ..... Teppich in English?                | repeat     |
| 13. ....do you say when you answer the phone?                  | spell      |
| 14. .... we ..... put a comma before because ?          | may        |
| 15. Could you lower the ....., please? It's so hot!            | have to    |
| 16. ....I go to the toilet?                                    | blinds     |
| 17. I'm sorry, I'm ....., but I missed the train this morning. | can        |

2. Read these dialogues and complete them using one of the sentences in exercise 1.

1. Peter: "What's the correct answer now for number 3 of exercise 12?"
 Mike: "I don't know. Ask the teacher."
 Peter: "Miss, .....?"

2. Peter: "Why do we say not many people but not much homework? I don't understand!.....?"
 Teacher: "Of course, I can. Well, people is always plural, and homework always singular."

3. Mike: ".....?"
 Teacher: "Well, you say Have you got a light?"

4. Teacher: "There isn't anybody here is correct."
 Mike: ".....there's nobody here?"
 Teacher: "Yes, of course."